To the Reader.

I Think a Preface, in commendation of the following Books, to be altogether needless, for I doubt not but upon perusal of the Catalogue, they will sufficiently recommend themselves; but much more upon view of them, a great many being of the large Paper, Gilt, and in excellent condition. The Pamphlets added to the English, are most of them rarely to be met with, and very well digested, nothing of the same nature so well qualified yet appearing in this way. I might instance a great many Rarities in the Catalogue, but I leave you to the perusal thereof, desiring all Gentlemen that design to Buy, to come or send to the place of Sale, to satisfy themselves in the Editions and Condition of the Books; where Attendance shall be constantly given four days before the Sale. And if any Gentlemen please to send Commissions thither, they shall be faithfully Executed by their Humble Servant.
